The Record

has, for over 104 years of uninterrupted publication, kept its readers posted with up-to-the-minute information regarding Church affairs

IT WAS NEVER BETTER THAN IT IS TO-DAY

It surveys and chronicles the progress of the Church in all its activities.

It has especially devoted itself to the cause of Church Defence at home, and to the encouragement of the Missionary Life of the Church abroad.

Whilst giving every attention to Church Intelligence, its literary contributions take the form of works by well-known Churchmen.

Read what some of our readers say:

From Home: "Your valuable paper is perhaps the only one of many which I read with the greatest possible interest from cover to cover."

From Overseas: "I can assure you your paper is well read and appreciated, and is very helpful in this diocese."

From an Archbishop: "I value The Record very much indeed."

From a Bishop: "I wish to repeat my great satisfaction with The Record, my congratulations on its vigorous life and good history, and my best wishes for a continuance of its good work."

Fridays 2d.

If you desire a living, an exchange, a curate, a curacy, a locum tenens, a locum tenency, temporary help, to give temporary help, a house, to sell or let a house, or a hundred and one other necessities, try our clerical and other small advertisement service (1/9 for 20 words).

PART III ALPHABETICAL LIST OF BENEFICES

NOTE.—An attempt has been made to simplify reference to this list, by inserting the names of the benefices in their natural order. Thus the Vicarage of St. Saviour's, Aberdeen Park, N., will be found under "A," rather than under Islington, of which parish it forms a part. It is hoped that this may be useful. For information as to the value of the benefice, population, etc., see List of Clergy in Part II.

G.B.C.W. following the name of an incumbent indicates that the patronage of the living is in the hands of the Governing Body of the Church in Wales; four appointments out of seven by the Diocesan Patronage Board, two by the Bishop of the Diocese and one by the Provincial Patronage Board.

The Tractarian Movement

FROM its inception a hundred years ago the Tractarian Movement has been identified with sound scholarship.

The English Church Union as "CUSTODIAN OF THE TRACTARIAN TRADITION" * has sought to uphold this heritage, and in its latter-day activities has made such invaluable contributions to the equipment of the Christian student as:

- (1) A New Commentary on Holy Scripture
- (2) The Elements of the Spiritual Life
- (3) Volume of Catholic Sermons

The work of the Literature Committee is but one department of the activities of the Union which exists to defend and maintain, on all fronts, the Catholic teaching and discipline of the Church of England.

EVERY ENGLISH CATHOLIC SHOULD BE A MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH CHURCH UNION

Forms of nomination can be obtained from the Revd. ARNOLD PINCHARD, Secretary, 31 Russell Square, London, W.C.1.

THE CREMATION SOCIETY

Founded in 1874 by the late Sir Henry Thompson. Incorporated in 1922 under the Companies Act as a body limited by guarantee, without a share capital and not conducted for profit.

President:

HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF BEDFORD, K.G.

Vice-Presidents:

LADY HELENA GLEICHEN, SIR P. CHALMERS MITCHELL, C.B.E., F.R.S., SIR HERBERT THOMPSON, Bt., D.LITT., SIR THOMAS HORDER, M.B., F.R.C.P., PROF. A. BOSTOCK HILL, LORD FARRER, MRS. ALEC TWEEDIE, J. C. SWINBURNE-HANHAM, J.P., W. ROBINSON, F.L.S.

★ CREMATION is the most sanitary form of burial, and one that does not shock the sense of reverence. Purification by fire is a beautiful idea. Many Church dignitaries have chosen this means of disposal of their earthly remains, and it is prescribed as a precedent to burial in Westminster Abbey and St. Paul's Cathedral.

★ The general adoption of cremation would also facilitate a return to the ancient custom of parochial Church Burial, and those who are interested to know how this would benefit the Church are invited to apply for pamphlet "Cremation and its relationship to the Church," which will be sent post free, together with a booklet giving full information as to the arrangements, charges, and procedure adopted at the Crematoria established at Woking, Golders Green, Birmingham, Manchester, Bradford, Leeds, Hull, Liverpool, Darlington, Sheffield, Southampton, Ipswich, Ilford, Bristol, Brighton, Nottingham, Pontypridd, Reading, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Guernsey, and elsewhere.

★ The following observations on this subject were made by the Bishop of Rochester in 1913, in his charge to the clergy of his diocese:—

"The rule which excludes from Westminster Abbey all interments but those of cremated ashes indicate that our cathedrals and our churches may, like our closed churchyards, once more become the resting-place of our sacred dead under the very Shadow of the Church."

The ashes of H.R.H. the late Duchess of Connaught, the Bishop of Truro, the Bishop of Lincoln, the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the Bishop of Worcester, Bishop Boyd Carpenter, Bishop Gore, Archdeacons Aglan, Tribe, Wilberforce, and Watkins, Canons Burnett, Coward, and Duckworth, the Dean of Norwich, Holman Hunt, Sir Henry Irving, Dame Ellen Terry, Rt. Hon. Mr. Bonar Law, Lord Ypres, and many other distinguished persons, were interred in church precincts after cremation.

★ The Council invite applications for free Registration or Membership. A single payment of five guineas or six annual subscriptions of £1 1s. qualifies as a Life Member, and includes cremation at death. Full information forwarded post free on application to the Secretary:

KING'S COLLEGE, LONDON

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

(School of Divinity in the University of London)

Dean—REV. RICHARD HANSON, M.A., B.D.

Theological Staff—PROFESSORS BICKNELL, HARDMAN, HOOKE, JENKINS, OESTERLEY, RELTON AND DEARMER.

Lecturers—DR. BEVAN, DR. SMITH, DR. HOLLIS, MR. TASKER, MR. DAMS.

THE Theological Department of King's College is a School of Theology in the University of London, and a place of preparation of Candidates for Holy Orders. Some of the Students read for the B.D. Degrees of the University and the Associateship of the College also, others for the Associateship alone. Nearly all the Bishops accept the Associateship as sufficient academic qualification. The usual course is for three years; evening study for three years can be substituted for the first two of the day-time course. There are 200 Day Students and 50 in the evening, besides upwards of 20 taking advanced work. Women students are admitted to the Theological Faculty to read for the B.D. or the Lambeth Diploma (S.Th.). Tutor to women students of Theology: MISS E. W. HIPPISEY, S.Th. The College possesses a Hostel for 75 Students and it is desirable, though not compulsory, that a part of the time should be spent in the Hostel.

For all information as to the Theological Department application should be made to the DEAN; and for the other Departments of the College to the SECRETARY, King's College, Strand, W.C.2.
